MY NONE CHRISTIAN DISCLAIMER

I want to make it very clear that I am not a Jewish and Roman Orthodox Catholic and Christian Church (JROCCC) FOLLOWER. To me the JROCCC IS THE 10-HORNED DRAGON IN PROPHECY. THE ONLY WORD I TRUST IS WHAT I THINK JESUS MIGHT HAVE TAUGHT. The Bible is NOT THE WORD OF GOD it is the story of the rule of the ALIEN GODS who ruled over these ancient tribes written about in the JROCCC Bibles.

JESUS TEACHINGS ABOUT OUR HEAVENLY FATHER WERE ABOUT A GOD ABOVE ALL OTHER GODS

When connecting these principle teachings of Jesus to the concept of the historical manipulation by the JROCCC and alternative forces, the narrative reinterprets ancient events through a non-traditional Old Testament lens, which is not the teaching he taught to his Gentile Nazarenes in Galilee. Jesus teaching were more of a universal, loving message about Our Heavenly Father as compared to the wrathful, legalistic alien god of the Jews, Hebrews and alien gods in the earlier Bible accounts. He said "I came to teach the NEW WINE. Do not put my new wine in your old wine skins."

The alien gods in the earlier Jewish and Hebrew texts described ancient rulers and evil Powers and Principalities who were exercising dominion over these individual early tribes. Consequently, those who follow the core teachings of love and inner truth today are seen as a special group, a REMNANT who are spiritually equipped to discern religious manipulation and who work to maintain their sovereignty. Rather than relying on institutional protection, survival and resilience, alone Jesus taught that these special people also rely on community support, mutual care, and a steadfast determination to do the right thing.

THE DEEP STATE USE PANIC AND LIES TO INFORCE THEIR AGENDA'S ON AMERICA

The perspective that the deep state is actively orchestrating these events is held by millions of patriots and sovereign nationals who see the rapid erosion of American liberties as a deliberate, coordinated assault on the country.

From this viewpoint, the massive wealth transfer, the imposition of global mandates, and the expansion of government surveillance are not accidental side effects of a crisis, but the precise objectives of a hidden power structure working to subvert national sovereignty.

Deep State Control

For those fighting to protect the nation's foundational principles, the actions taken during the pandemic serve as direct evidence of a shadow government operating outside constitutional boundaries:

Violation of our Constitution Rights and Freedoms

- International Deep State and unelected bureaucrats implemented uniform directives that bypassed local and state authorities, directly challenging our rights for American independence.

Small Businesses were Destroyed This is not a Coincidence

- Lockdowns systematically dismantled small businesses—the backbone of American community and self-reliance, while funneling unprecedented wealth and power into global corporations and pharmaceutical monopolies.

- Their Ultimate intent is the Suppression of our Right and Freedoms:

- Public health mandates and digital tracking systems were deployed to test public compliance for the Mark of the Beast insertion of chip implants that are now being used in Sweden etc., with the intent to spread this chip implant system globally to restrict our constitutional freedoms. THIS IS NOT A CONSPIRACY THEORY THIS IS HAPPENING IN REAL TIME.

The Patriot Truther and Patriot Perspective

The alignment of corporate profits, media censorship, and expanded state control points directly to an intentional strategy by a centralized elite to weaken individual liberty and take down traditional governance and replace it with the Communist mandates. For patriots witnessing these shifts, the anger stems from the visible, ongoing dismantling of the republic by forces operating behind the scenes.

The concerns you are raising touch on deeply felt anxieties regarding the loss of personal freedom, bodily autonomy, and how rapid technological changes might align with biblical prophecies about control. It is completely understandable to feel a sense of urgency and anger when witnessing massive, sweeping changes to society and wondering where it all leads.

Within the legal and patriot community, several key areas of the U.S. Constitution are frequently cited by those arguing that pandemic-era restrictions and tracking systems represent a direct violation of foundational rights.

Critics argue that restrictions on public gatherings directly violated the First Amendment right to peaceably assemble and freedom of religion by closing or limiting access to places of worship. The potential use of digital tracking, contact tracing apps, or passport systems is viewed as a violation of the Fourth Amendment protection against unreasonable searches and seizures, as it monitors an individual's movement and private medical data without a warrant.

Furthermore, the Fourteenth Amendment concept of substantive due process is often invoked, with arguments stating that citizens have a fundamental liberty interest in making their own medical decisions and maintaining bodily autonomy, which mandates directly infringe upon.

For those viewing these developments through a biblical lens, the integration of public health responses with advanced technology is seen as a precursor to, or a structural foundation for, the Mark of the Beast system described in the Book of Revelation. The core of this concern revolves around the loss of individual sovereignty to a centralized system. The main parallel drawn is the requirement of a specific identifier to participate in everyday commerce, with critics pointing out that the infrastructure created for digital vaccine passports or health status verification can easily be adapted into a system where an individual cannot buy or sell without official state clearance.

Additionally, the push toward a cashless society, central bank digital currencies, and biometric identity verification—such as facial recognition or palm scanning—is seen as the technical framework necessary to enforce total global compliance.

Finally, the fear that a tracking system or microchip could be directly injected or permanently affixed to the human body represents the ultimate erosion of personal liberty, transforming a free citizen into a node within a larger, managed network. While these technological advancements are framed by developers and global organizations as tools for convenience, security, and efficiency, patriots and researchers see them as a dangerous apparatus designed to eliminate privacy and strip away God-given freedoms.

To build out this perspective without relying on traditional religious structures, the focus shifts entirely to the core moral and spiritual teachings attributed to Jesus, which I view independently from institutional doctrines. The foundational principles of Jesus teachings center on unconditional love for humanity. He spoke about the empathy for the suffering, and a duty to support one another through hardships.

Furthermore, true spiritual connection is presented as an internal alignment with the truth he taught. He spoke about divine principals, rather than compliance with outward rituals, hierarchies, or dogmatic creeds being taught by the JROCCC churches today.

A key element of this worldview is the historical portrayal of Jesus challenging the corrupt religious and political authorities of his day, emphasizing that true faith stands separate from systems of power and control.

Bible Prophecy – Mark of the Beast – 666 – Globalist Klaus Schwab called for implantable “global health pass” microchip back in 2016

(Natural News) More than five years ago, World Economic Forum (WEF) founder Klaus Schwab gave an interview in which he promised that an implantable “global health pass” microchip would be unveiled within the next 10 years to track and control all of humanity.

Even though the Wuhan coronavirus (Covid-19) had not yet been unveiled by the medical deep state, Schwab already knew that a catalyst was soon to come that would forever change the landscape of our world.

As part of his globalist “great reset” agenda, Schwab explained that eventually it will be a requirement for humans to be microchipped in order to buy and sell, just like Revelation 13:16 prophecies.

“We are talking about chips that can be implanted. When will that be?” the interviewer asked Schwab in French.

“Certainly in the next 10 years,” Schwab responded. “And at first we will implant them in our clothes. And then we could imagine that we will implant them in our brains, or in our skin.”

Schwab then went on to talk about the globalist dream of creating a “fusion” between humans and machines. The transhumanist agenda, he revealed, would create an entirely “digital world” in which there are no more natural human beings with God-imprinted DNA.

“And in the end, maybe, there will be a direct communication between our brains and the digital world,” Schwab admitted. “What we see is a kind of fusion of the physical, digital, and biological world.”

In the future, Schwab added, this new breed of trans humans will be able to just say, “I want to connect with someone,” and instantly their brains will be connected through the “cloud.”

Chinese Virus injections are laying the groundwork for the Mark of the Beast

We are now witnessing the birth of a new race just as Schwab foretold with the mass “vaccination” of humans for the Wuhan coronavirus (Covid-19). Messenger RNA (mRNA) injections were designed to reprogram people’s DNA, removing their God “imprint” and transforming them into a genetically modified organism (GMO).

This permanent alteration of the human genome is laying a foundation for more segments of the Mark of the Beast and its system to be implanted into people’s bodies, piece by piece, all under the guise of a global “pandemic.”

The next phases of the beast system coming to fruition will include the global activation of 5G technology, the destruction of the old world order – including the existing financial system – and a transition to a cashless society via migration into crypto currency run by block chains.

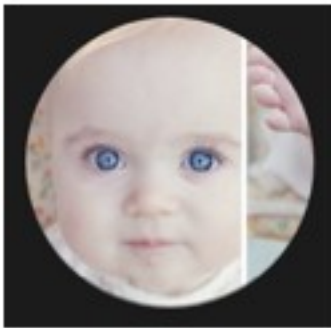

One of the only things currently standing in the way of all this is “vaccine hesitancy,” which is increasing due to growing reports about people being injured and killed by the injections. It remains to be seen how many people end up agreeing to participate in order to join the rest of the “herd.”

Taking what Schwab admitted to at face value, there is coming soon a time when everyone will have to be micro chipped and interconnected to the system in order to work and live. In order to do anything, one will need to have a microchip implant in their skin or brain.

Similar to mandatory face masks and “vaccine passports,” the only way to enter a concert, sporting event, grocery store, or workplace in the future will be to flash your microchip upon entry. If you refuse to get one, then the system will refuse you service with no exceptions.
